Abstract

Consultant:	GAI Consultants, Inc. 1301 Riverplace Boulevard, Suite 900 Jacksonville, Florida 32207 904.363.1110
Client:	City of Bunnell 200 South Church Street, PO Box 756 Bunnell, Florida 32110 386.437.7500
Scope of Services:	Conduct an Architectural Survey and Evaluation of resources within the City of Bunnell.
Principal Investigators:	Jared N. Tuk, M.A., Lead Architectural Historian
Purpose:	To identify and document architectural and historical resources in the City of Bunnell, beginning in the City's center along Moody Boulevard and State Street (US Route 1) radiating outward, and to evaluate resources for individual eligibility and eligibility as contributors to one or more potential historic districts, for both future local designation and National Register of Historic Places (NRHP) significance.
Date(s) Conducted:	May-June 2008
Project Name:	Historic Structure Survey
City/County/State:	City of Bunnell, Flagler County, Florida
Survey Area:	Within corporate limits of the City of Bunnell.
of Surveyed Resources:	211 newly surveyed architectural resources and 73 survey updates.
Recommended Actions:	Consider nominating the potential Downtown Bunnell Historic District to the NRHP under Criterion A (Community Planning). Consider pursuit of individual NRHP status for the resources most closely tied to the history of Bunnell, including the I.I. Moody House (FL00128), the George Moody House (FL00105), the Dr. W.H. Deen House (FL00112), and the former Flagler County Courthouse (FL00116), among others. Also, designate the aforementioned resources as local historic properties following establishment of a local historic preservation ordinance. Consider funding an intensive survey of the individual resources and potential historic districts recommended potentially eligible for listing in the National Register and/or as possible future Bunnell historic landmarks.
